

British Board of Coaching (BBC)

Professional Template

Client Onboarding & Intake Package

Welcome to Your Coaching Journey

This intake package is designed to establish a professional foundation for our coaching relationship. Please complete all sections before our first session so we can make the most of our time together.

Client Information Form

Please provide the following details:

- Full Name:
- Date of Birth:
- Email Address:
- Phone Number:
- Occupation / Profession:
- How did you hear about us?:

Discovery Questionnaire

These questions help me understand your goals and prepare for our work together. There are no right or wrong answers — please be as honest and detailed as you can.

- What brings you to coaching at this point in your life?
- What would you like to achieve through coaching?
- What do you consider your greatest strengths?
- What obstacles or challenges are you currently facing?
- How will you know coaching has been successful for you?
- What patterns do you notice in your life that you would like to change?

Coaching Agreement

This agreement outlines the terms of our coaching relationship. Please read and sign to confirm your understanding.

- Coaching is a partnership focused on your growth and development.
- Sessions are confidential unless there is risk of harm to self or others.
- Sessions last 50 minutes and are held at agreed-upon times.
- Cancellations require 24 hours notice.
- Coaching is not therapy, counseling, or medical advice.
- Both parties commit to honesty, respect, and active participation.

Goal-Setting Form

Use this form to articulate your primary coaching goals. We will refine these together during our first session.

- Primary Goal (most important outcome):
- Secondary Goals:
- Timeline for achievement:
- How will you measure progress?:
- What support do you need from your coach?:

